General Questions – Click here to return to menu

Q: Is it possible to order materials for more than one market/product/plan year at a time?

No, each order can only consist of items for one market, one plan year, and one health plan (product). You must process your order based on the selection made in the Guided Search before you can start a new order for a different market, plan year, or health plan. For example, an order cannot include materials for more than one market, plan years together, or multiple health plans. Further, to order materials for more than one market, both plan years, or for more than one health plan, multiple orders must be submitted. These orders can be submitted back-to-back.

Q: If there are multiple brokers in one office, is it possible to order for all brokers at once?

Quantities and material versions are assigned to brokers on an individual basis. Brokers must individually order materials through CustomPoint to ensure they have what they need to market and sell according to their license and certification.

Q: Is there a separate username and password for CustomPoint?

No, to login to CustomPoint, you must access it through your Wellcare Single Sign-On (SSO) portal. Please ensure to only access CustomPoint through your SSO portal. Please reference the Broker Single Sign-On Portal Account Setup Guide for assistance with accessing your SSO portal.

Q: When I place an order in CustomPoint, what is my default address?

The default address used for shipping order materials is the shipping address that you have listed with Wellcare. If this address is not the desired shipping location, you have the ability to select a different address or add a new address that you save to your account for future use. Please note: UPS and FedEx are not able to deliver to a PO Box. Only the United States Postal Service is permitted to deliver mail to a PO Box. Depending on the size of your order and PO Box size, delivery might be unsuccessful. We suggest not using a PO Box if at all possible.
